

The Five-Day Community for Spiritual Formation

Sunday 7th–Friday 12th November 2021 - Cliff College, Derbyshire

Worship ~ Teaching ~ Silence ~ Reflection

with

Sr. Margaret Crinyion OSM & Rev. Dr. Malcolm Guite

Waiting on the Word

Through a programme of worship, teaching, silence and reflection based on a Benedictine monastic pattern

The Five-Day Community for Spiritual Formation

aims to

- root spirituality in Christian faith and tradition
- provide opportunity for participation in community life
 - form people for life in a changing world

Waiting on the Word will be explored in daily presentations by

Sr. Margaret Crinyion OSM

Margaret has lived as a Servite Sister for more than 50 years including over 25 years teaching. Since studying Spiritual Direction at Heythrop College, London in 1982 she has had extensive involvement in Spiritual Accompaniment with individuals and groups. Margaret enjoys sitting, geriatric walking and gardening, and a nice cup of tea. The Servite Order has Community as its Chrism along with a particular understanding of the role of Mary, Servant and Mother of the Lord. This has encouraged in Margaret a particular passion for the role of Women in Scripture, the Church and the World.

Rev. Dr. Malcolm Guite

Poet-Priest Malcolm Guite was Chaplain for 20 years at Girton College, Cambridge and teaches at the University there. He writes a weekly column in the Church Times and lectures widely on Theology and Literature. Malcolm's many books include an edited anthology for Advent, 'Waiting on the Word' (2015) which gives this retreat its name. He has a particular interest in the imagination as a truth-bearing faculty and continues to reflect deeply on how poetry can stimulate and re-awaken our prayer life. Amongst many other things, Malcolm is part of a rock band, Mystery Train. www.malcolmguite.com

More about the theme...

Margaret: Advent is Mary's time, when we can learn by her example to be people who wait in patience for the revelation of God-with-us in this moment. It is a time to ponder the Word and learn again to hold it in our hearts, a time pregnant with expectation and longing. Margaret hopes to explore these notions by penetrating deeply into the infancy narrative of Matthew and Luke. With the help of visual images she hopes to lead the participants into silence and stillness so that we can renew our desire to become people of prayer who are on a mission to share the Word with others.

Malcolm: Advent is a season for stillness, for quiet, for discernment. It is a season of active waiting, listening attentively and being finely tuned to hear again one's deepest yearnings for the saviour. In this retreat Malcolm will look at how poetry can help us fathom the depths of Advent's many paradoxes, looking at poems from the spiritual classics to contemporary voices, and using his own poetry including the great Advent Antiphons.

Cliff College was, historically, a Methodist Lay Training College, which now provides theological education and training with a particular focus on mission and evangelism. Set in the Derbyshire Peak District, the college has extensive grounds amidst excellent walking country and fine views. www.cliffcollege.ac.uk
